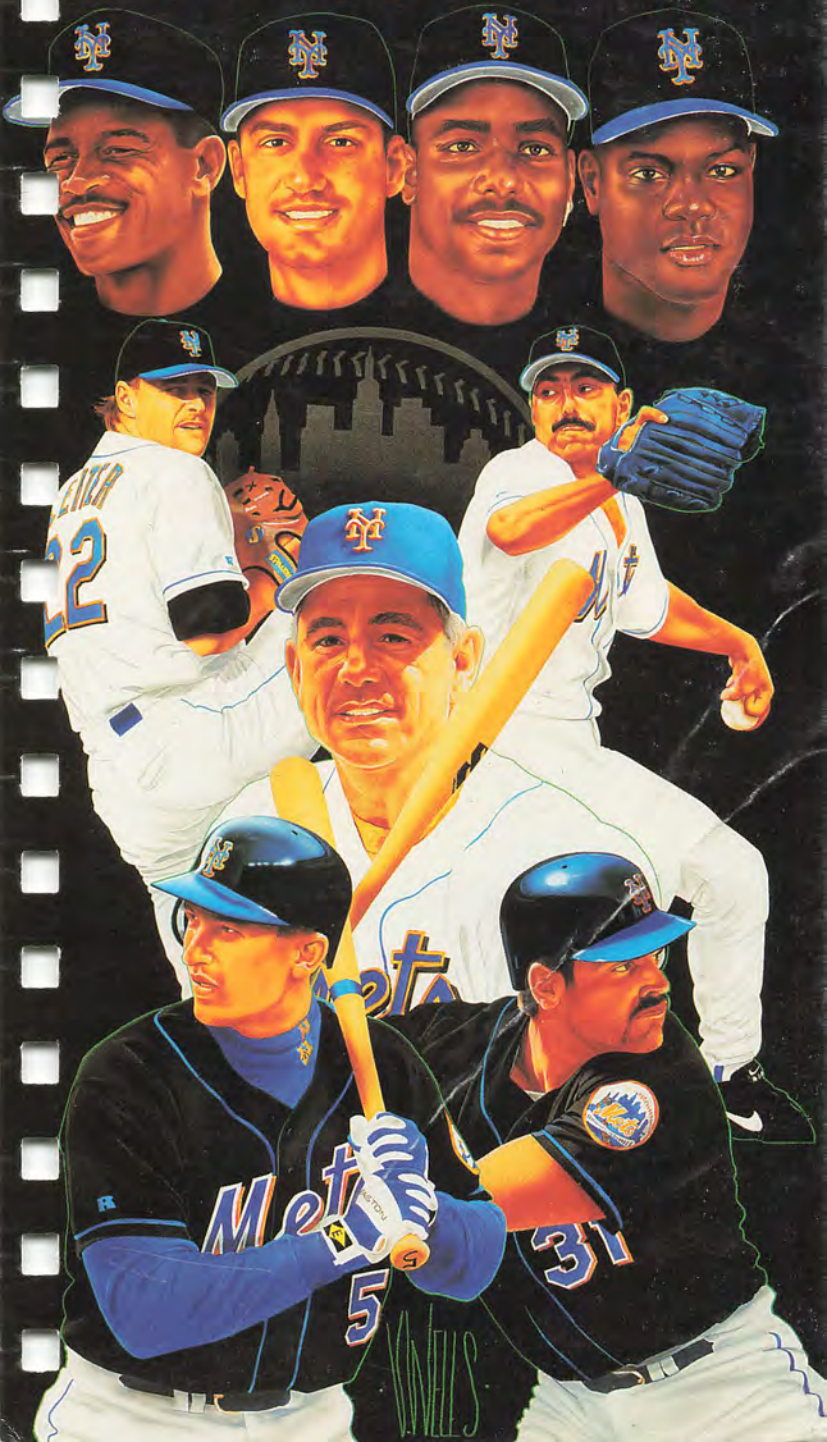
NEW YORK METS

ARE YOU READY?



The New York Mets 1999 Information Guide is dedicated to the memory of Michele Dougherty who died of cancer last October at the all too young age of 39. She leaves behind her husband Matt, her two children, Molly and Patrick, her parents Lois and Irv and a brother Alan. For 15 years her vibrant smile and engaging personality lit up the halls and offices at Shea as she helped Bob Mandt administer the Stadium's daily activities. It won't be the same without her.

ON THE FRONT COVER:

AND THE NAME IS...

"The name is METS...just plain Mets."

The name Mets was judged by club owner Mrs. Joan Payson as the one that best met five basic criteria:

1) It met public and press acceptance;
2) It was closely related to the team's corporate name (Metropolitan Baseball Club, Inc);
3) It was descriptive of the Metropolitan area;
4) It had a brevity that delighted copy readers everywhere;
5) It had historical background, referring to the Metropolitans of the 19th century American Association.

Other names considered included Rebels, Skyliners, NYBs, Burros (for the five boroughs), Continentals, Avengers...As well as Jets and Islanders, names that would eventually find their way into the New York sports scene.

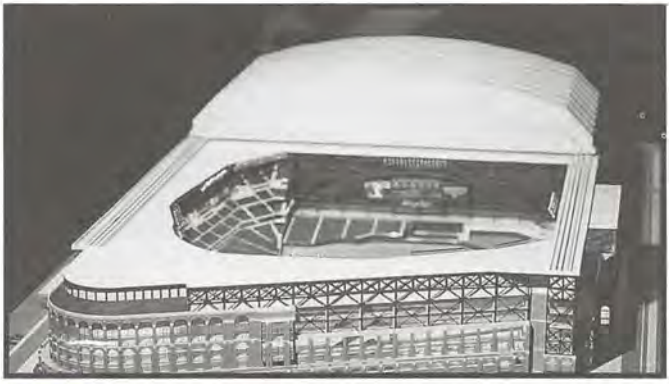
NEW STADIUM PLANS



THE GOAL: To design and develop a state of the art baseball stadium that is unique and would be representative of New York City—"The greatest city in the world".

TARGET DATE FOR COMPLETION OF STADIUM: 2003

LOCATION: Corner of Roosevelt Avenue and 126th Street, within existing Shea Stadium parking lot.

CAPACITY: 45,000 seats for baseball; up to 50,000 for other events.

STADIUM: The facility will have a facade and rotunda that evokes memories of Ebbets Field but also will have every modern feature, including a retractable roof, 78 luxury suites, four party suites and more than 5,000 club suites. The most unique element of the design is a roll-out natural grass field. The entire playing field will roll out of the stadium in one piece and come to rest in the parking lot surrounded by a fence and open to the air and sunlight. This is an essential element to play in an enclosed facility on natural grass. When the field is rolled out, the concrete deck would be used for any number of sports and entertainment events year-round. The Mets have exclusive rights to roll-in, roll-out technology in this part of the country.

THE METS LOGO

The circular Mets logo, designed by sports cartoonist Ray Gatto and unveiled on November 16, 1961, has gone virtually unchanged throughout the history of the club. The shape of the insignia, with its orange stitching, represents a baseball, and the bridge in the foreground symbolizes that the Mets, in bringing back the National League to New York, represent all five boroughs. It's not just a skyline in the background, but has special meaning. At the left is a church spire, symbolic of Brooklyn, the borough of churches. The second building from the left is the Williamsburg Savings Bank, the tallest building in Brooklyn. Next is the Woolworth Building. After a general skyline view of midtown comes the Empire State Building. At the far right is the United Nations Building.

1-0 GAMES

The Mets have an all-time record of 93-88 in games that have ended with 1-0 scores...The most 1-0 wins the Mets have had in any season were in 1969, when the club went 9-5...On September 29, 1993 the Mets and Cardinals battled for 16 scoreless innings before Jeff Kent's 17th-inning double plated the game's only run...A long evening, but not a club record...That honor belongs to the 1-0 Mets loss on April 15, 1968 when the Mets and Astros went 23 scoreless innings before Houston pushed across the winning run on an infield error.

The Mets were 4-0 in 1-0 games in 1998:

TWO WINS IN ONE DAY

John Franco earned a save and a win (respectively) in a July 30th, 1996 doubleheader vs. the Pirates at Shea. Only three pitchers in Mets history—Craig Anderson in 1962, Willard Hunter in 1964 and Jesse Orosco in 1983—have won both ends of a doubleheader. Anderson did it on May 12, 1962, beating the Braves at the Polo Grounds 3-2 and 8-7 with a combined three innings of shutout relief. Hunter accomplished the feat on August 23, 1964 at Shea when 1.2 innings of no-hit shutout relief earned him 2-1 and 5-4 wins over Chicago. Orosco joined the group on July 31, 1983 at Shea when he held the Pirates scoreless over a total of five relief innings en route to a pair of 12-inning wins; 7-6 and 1-0.

SELF SUPPORT

In the entire 37-year history of the club, only twice has a Mets pitcher belted a grand slam home run.

The first one came in the club's second season, on July 15, 1963. Frank Thomas, Joe Hicks and Larry Burright were the runners when Carl Willey belted a drive over the Polo Grounds right field wall off Houston's Ken Johnson. The home run came in the second inning of the Mets' 14-5 win over the Colt 45s, and also represented the first homer ever by a Mets pitcher.

Four years later, on May 20, 1967, Jack Hamilton blasted a bases-loaded homer at Shea off St. Louis' Al Jackson. Tommy Davis, Ken Boyer and Jerry Grote marched home ahead of Hamilton, who connected in the second inning of the Mets 11-9 loss to the Cards.

And it hasn't happened since.

THE TRIPLE PLAY THAT ENDED THREE CAREERS

On September 30, 1962 the Mets were about to drop their record 120th game to the Cubs at Wrigley Field. Sammy Drake led off the top of the eighth with a pinch single. Richie Ashburn then singled Drake to second. The next hitter Joe Pignatano hit a broken bat looper behind second base. Thinking the ball was going to drop for a hit, the runners took off, but Ken Hubbs the Cubs second baseman made a leaping backhand stab on the grass and threw to Ernie Banks at first to retire Ashburn. Banks then relayed a throw to shortstop Andre Rogers at second to get Drake and complete the triple play. For Ashburn, who had been playing second base for only the second time in his career, it was the last play he was ever involved with, as he left the game. Drake and Pignatano remained in the contest for the final frame, but neither would ever play another game

BAD LUCK BOB

Like many of the Original Mets, Bob L. Miller had a rough season in 1962. He was hounded by reporters as he was 0-12 before finally winning tossing a complete-game win in final start, September 29th at Chicago. At that point in the season, only one reporter, Jack Lang, was still covering the team. Unfortunately for Miller, even in triumph, his bad luck continued, as Lang was so busy filing reports for all the other papers that afternoon he never got down to the locker room to speak to the victor. Miller was heard wondering aloud, "where are those guys now?".

THE BIG INNING

The biggest inning in Mets history? It's the 10-run bombardment that they unleashed against the Cincinnati Reds in the sixth inning at Shea on June 12, 1979. It was the keynote in a 12-6 victory.

The inning featured five hits and two Reds' errors as the Mets victimized three Cincinnati pitchers (Bill Bonham, Manny Sarmiento and Dave Tomlin) during the record assault.

Key hits during the inning were Frank Taveras' two-run double, Richie Hebner's two-run single and Doug Flynn's three-run, inside-the-park home run. The Mets went into the inning trailing, 5-2 and came out with a 12-5 lead.

ORDOÑEZ WINS SECOND CONSECUTIVE GOLD GLOVE AWARD

Mets' shortstop Rey Ordoñez won his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award on October 19, 1998. The award is presented annually by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company.

Ordoñez joins Keith Hernandez as only the second Met to ever win more than one Gold Glove. Hernandez won six consecutive Gold Gloves from 1983-1988.

Last season, Ordoñez became the second Met shortstop to achieve this honor and the sixth player in club history. Bud Harrelson won the Award as a shortstop in 1971.

Other Mets who have won Gold Glove honors are pitcher Ron Darling (1989) second baseman Doug Flynn (1980) and outfielder Tommie Agee (1970).

In 1998, Ordoñez made 17 errors in 683 total chances for a fielding percentage of .975.

Joining Ordoñez on the 1998 Gold Glove NL squad are: pitcher Greg Maddux of Atlanta, catcher Charles Johnson of Los Angeles, first baseman J.T. Snow of San Francisco, second baseman Bret Boone of Cincinnati, third baseman Scott Rolen of Philadelphia, outfielders Barry Bonds of San Francisco, Larry Walker Walker of Colorado and Andruw Jones of Atlanta.

SHEA STADIUM'S LONGEST HOME RUNS

It is generally perceived that Tommie Agee hit the longest home run in the history of Shea Stadium on April 10, 1969. In the second inning, Agee hit a drive into the upper deck in leftfield off the Expos' Larry Jaster, the only fair ball in the stadium's 33-year history to reach the upper deck.

Dave Kingman had several monumental blasts at Shea, including one that cleared the back fence in leftfield (which is 488' feet away from home) and reached the parking lot.

On September 4, 1998, Mike Piazza hit a 485 foot two run blast off Atlanta's Tom Glavine to give the Mets a 2-1 victory.

Darryl Strawberry pelted the rightfield scoreboard many times, including a moon shot off the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela on May 22, 1987. Straw also hit monster shot's off the Reds' Jack Armstrong, July 7, 1988 and off the Astros' Dave Smith, July 19, 1986.

Other big blasts of note are: Leon Durham breaking a window in the player's parking lot off Mark Bomback in 1980 and Bobby Bonilla hitting a bus off Jeff Innis on Opening Day, 1990. Richie Allen also cracked a couple of extremely long home runs at Shea.

SANDY KOUFAX CAREER RECORD vs. THE METS

Brooklyn-native Sandy Koufax began his major league career close to home with the Brooklyn Dodgers, but he didn't reach his Hall of Fame level of success until the Dodgers moved to Los Angeles. During his distinguished career, the three-time Cy Young Award winner enjoyed a tremendous amount of success against the Mets. Here are his career numbers against New York, as well as some points of interest:

W	L	IP	H	R	ER	2B	3B	HR	HB	BB	SO	CG	ShO	ERA	BA	SA	OBA
17	2	162.0	98	34	26	14	1	7	0	42	173	14	5	1.44	.170	.226	.235

1. Won first 9 starts and first 13 decisions against Mets.
2. Struck out 173 in 162 innings (= 9.6 per 9 innings).
3. Struck out 10 or more Mets 8 times.
4. Permitted 140 baserunners (= 7.8 per 9 innings).
5. Pitched his first no-hitter, second and final one-hitter (The only hit being a home run by Jim Hickman).
6. Posted a 17-2 record with 14 complete games and 5 shutouts in 20 starts.

Also: Tug McGraw made his first major league start, as the Mets defeated Koufax for the first time, August 26, 1965.

Here is the daily log for Koufax's 20 starts vs Mets:

RETIRED NUMBERS

On April 15, 1997 in a special ceremony at Shea Stadium, the chairman of the Major League Executive Council, Allan H. "Bud" Selig announced the retirement of the Jackie Robinson's uniform Number 42 throughout major league baseball.

"The day Jackie Robinson stepped on a major league field will forever be remembered as baseball's proudest moment," said Selig standing side-by-side with Jackie's widow Rachel and the President of the United States, Bill Clinton. "Major League Baseball is retiring Number 42 in tribute to his great achievements and for the significant contributions he made to society. Number 42 belongs to Jackie Robinson for the ages."

According to a news release sent out by the Office of the Commissioner that night: 'Number 42 will never again be issued by a major league club to any player or other on-field personnel, other than those who are currently wearing it. Those who are may wear them for the remainder of their careers.'

Butch Huskey, who wore 42 as a tribute to Robinson, was be the last Met to wear the number.

Tom Seaver is the only Met player to have his number retired. Number 41 was retired in a tribute at Shea Stadium on July 24, 1988.

Gil Hodges number 14 and Casey Stengel's 37 are also retired.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS
40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1st, when it again becomes 40.

QUALIFYING MARKS
To qualify for the batting championship a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for earned run average leadership a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE
Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at bat, (at-bats do not include walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE
Add the total of hits, walks, and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches, and sacrifice flies.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK
A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. Only a pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

TRADING REGULATIONS
Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of the season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at close of preceding season.

INTER-LEAGUE AND INTRA-LEAGUE TRADES
No waivers necessary from 5 p.m., Eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31st. Waivers are necessary from August 1st through 5 p.m., eastern time, the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

DETERMINING A "MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR"
172 days constitute a full year in the Major Leagues.

ROOKIE RULE
The Baseball Writers Association of America considers a player a rookie unless during the previous season or seasons he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or, (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club, excluding military service, during the 25-man limit. The 25-player limit is in effect from Opening Day through August 31st.

SAVE DEFINITION
(Official Scoring Rule 10.20)

Credit the pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;

(2) He is not the winning pitcher;

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

- (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
- (b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or
- (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more that one save may be credited in each game.

PIAZZA WINS SIXTH CONSECUTIVE SILVER SLUGGER AWARD

Mets' catcher Mike Piazza won his sixth consecutive Silver Slugger Award on October 22, 1998. Hillerich and Bradsby Co., the makers of Louisville Slugger annually give the Silver Slugger Award to the best overall offensive player for each position in each league. It is voted on by major league managers and coaches.

For the season, Piazza finished fourth in the National League with a .329 batting average (184-560) over 151 overall games. He had 88 runs scored, 38 doubles, one triple, 32 home runs, 111 RBI, 58 walks and one stolen base. In addition, he posted a .571 slugging percentage and a .390 on-base average.

Piazza, 30, became the first Met to win this honor since pitcher Dwight Gooden did so in 1992. Third baseman Howard Johnson was the last Mets position player to garner this achievement (1989 and 1991).

Gary Carter is the only other Met catcher to take the Sliver Slugger (1985 and 1986), while first baseman Keith Hernandez (1984) and outfielder Darryl Strawberry (1988) have also won.

THE BIG COMEBACK

Come-from-behind victories have always been a big part of Mets history. Possibly the most dramatic in club history came on September 13, 1997, when New York overcame a 6-0 ninth-inning defecit to overtake the Expos, 9-6, in 11 innings. In that contest, Carl Everett's grand slam with two out in the ninth inning tied the game and Bernard Gilkey's pinch-hit three-run home run in the 11th was the game-winner.

However, the biggest comeback triumph in club annals came on September 2, 1972 when the Mets trailed the Houston Astros, 8-0, after seven innings. Sparked by Ken Boswell's three-run home run, the Mets sent 12 batters to the plate in the eighth, exploding for seven runs and cutting the deficit to 8-7. In the ninth, New York would bat around again, scoring four runs. Cleon Jones' two-run double was the deciding blow as the Mets posted the greatest come-from-behind win in club history ion an 11-8 victory.
